SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

This was the first day of our work week and it was slow for a Saturday. Officers made traffic stops and performed extra patrols as necessary. Officers responded to a report of an assault and battery between 2 subjects who were in a dating relationship. Apparently one part had locked himself in his bedroom, along with their small child. The other half wanted the child and used a screw driver to remove the hinges from the door so she could gain access. During the investigation, the victim stated he was scratched by the female. She was arrested for domestic violence.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers stayed proactive throughout the night. An officer made a traffic stop on a male who had a felony warrant. He was arrested and booked. Another officer recognized a parolee at a local motel and contacted him. The male had a warrant out of county and was also placed on a hold. He was arrested and booked. Officers responded to an assault & battery in-progress. When they arrived, they could hear the incident actively occurring between a male and female. Through the investigation the male was arrested for several domestic violence related charges. He was booked.
