Officers responded to a store pharmacy for a disturbance. The Pharmacy Tech accidentally gave hydrocodone pills to a customer. When the Tech tried to correct the error the customer refused to give the pills back and claimed they were thrown away after she left the store. She consented to a search of her car and property and the pills were not found. The store requested documentation. An officer also investigated a juvenile molest that allegedly has been occurring for over a year. The 15-year old victim claims she has been touched inappropriately by a family friend who was trying to groom her. There are no witnesses or evidence to the occurrences, and the suspect denied the allegations. Report will be sent to the DA Office for review.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Surprisingly it was another quiet night for the graveyard shift. Officers started the shift with several call for service on the board, but they assisted swingshift with those calls and things became pretty quiet towards the end of the shift. Officers contacted a male and female couple who were acting suspicious in a non-developed industrial area of the city. The female had a warrant and was subsequently arrested. Later in the night, officers were following up on a theft from a retail store. They contacted a subject riding a bike that matched the one stolen. As it turned out, the bike that the subject was riding was the one stolen. It was returned to the owner and the subject was arrested.
