SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Over all, it was a steady night for the shift, but not quite as busy as the night before. During this shift officers made several warrant arrests, as well as arrests for being publicly intoxicated and for shoplifting. One of which had officers respond to a local supermarket for subjects who were seen shoplifting. They were able to get out of the store and then drive away. Responding officers quickly located the vehicle, arrested the suspects, and returned the stolen merchandise. Additionally, officers used the time to complete their reports from earlier in the week. Tonight also had officers keeping an eye on the city parks and the downtown areas. While checking on one of the parks, officers heard a loud disturbance coming from a car as it passed the park. When officers contacted the car, a subject decided to get out of the car and attempt to flee. He was located and ultimately arrested due to his intoxication.
