SHIFT: DAY SHIFT

Sgt. Neves

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 8

CATEGORIES

1 Warrant arrest	3 Larceny	1 Violation of Court Order
1 Search Warrant	1 Accident - Noninjury	1 Auto Burglary

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was another hot day, and another busy one for dayshift officers. In addition to calls for service, officers made several traffic enforcement stops, as well as extra patrolling certain areas of town. Officers made a traffic enforcement stop in the early morning hours. The driver was found to have an outstanding warrant he was subsequently arrested for the warrant. Officers took several larceny reports, with a majority of them being shoplifting from local retailers. Additionally, officers investigated a violation of a court restraining order. The victim stated that her ex (whom she is protected from) came to her family gathering to deliver money he owed her. An argument ensued and he placed his hands on her face and threw her phone. The report was sent to the District Attorney's office for review.
