1 Public Intoxication

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Sunday proved to be a busy day. In the morning officers spent time looking for subjects who had active warrants. One of these attempts lead to the arrest of a subject who had multiple warrants. He also had a female with him, who also had multiple warrants. After the arrest, during a search, officers located several stolen debit cards, credit cards, and a large amount to cash. It is believed that these two are using stolen debit cards to access and withdraw cash amounts. Both these subjects were arrested and the cash was taken as evidence, as was the stolen debit cards. Officers also arrested a subject who was highly intoxicated and, in a vehicle, parked in a neighborhood. He was taken to jail as well. Near the end of the shift, officers assisted the fire department by conducting traffic control while they worked on a structure fire.
